Book Lover's Book News

Gayle

It's That New Year Again!

As we enter our 6th New Year at Page 2 BOOKS, we continue to be grateful to you, our customers, for supporting us through your purchases, your returns for Store Credit, your referrals, your compliments and your complaints! YOU are what make our world go round.

PRESERVING FOR THE FUTURE: Recycling is a BIG DEAL and Page 2 BOOKS is a GIANT RECYCLING EVENT. In 2007 we took in and sold over 30,000 books! From all of us here at Page 2 BOOKS, thank you for helping us preserve for the future!

BOOKS TO MOVIES! What a year for books to movies! Atonement based on Ian McEwan' best-selling novel, The Kite Runner based on Khaled Hosseini's novel and The Golden Compass by Philip Pullman all opened in December.

And don't forget PS I Love You. Cecelia Ahern, daughter of Bertie Ahern, prime minister of Ireland, wrote her first novel when she was barely into her 20s. Within a year, it had become the most popular Irish novel of its time, staying at #1 for 19 straight weeks.

We will be anxiously awaiting Elizabeth Gilbert's Eat, Pray, Love which was purchased by Julia Roberts.

TOP IN LITERACY? Minneapolis beat out Seattle this year. The survey focused on 69 U.S. cities with populations of 250,000 or above. The six key indicators are newspaper circulation, number of bookstores (yes!), library resources, periodical publishing resources, educational attainment and Internet resources. Top 5 are 1) Minneapolis, MN, 2) Seattle, WA. 3) St. Paul, MN, 4) Denver, CO, 5) Washington D.C.

Best Wishes for a New Year filled with great reading! --Gayle
