Book Lover's Book News

The Rest of the Story...

It's time to get nostalgic again! The first week in April is traditionally our 'anniversary month'. So in March I start thinking about it! It's been six years since Karen and I put that key in the door. I think you know how much we love being here; working to put books into your hands and making your shopping experience something special.

As closely as we can figure, this store was started about 1988. Some of you have been customers that entire time, and we love to hear stories about the 'old days'! Karen and I are the fourth owners, and as of this year, the longest!

You can read a brief 'getting started' story and see current pictures on our website at www.page2books.com.

What changes have we seen?

Since we have been here, we have seen many changes in our Center. JoAnn's was the first to move out. Then Aaron's moved in. Remember when we had the little grocery mart at the end of our row? Now it's Sprint. And the Tattoo Parlor moved, leaving that space wide open. Ace Rentals is now Cactus Club Tanning Salon. The sandwich shop is now Sushi Maki. Long's moved back to California and Office Depot has taken over the space. And yes, they will have a grand opening in March!

Please help us celebrate!

On Saturday, April 5 we will have an Open House. This is a time for us to say a special Thank You to you by way of cookies, coffee and prizes. Please plan to stop by, say hello and share a story or two.
