Happy Holidays!

It is that time of year when the leaves are changing and the weather cools. Books become our getaway to romance, mystery and intrigue, all of which are our customer's favorites!

Over the years, many local authors have caught our attention – the one most requested this fall is Debbie Macomber. From angels to knitting she has a wide readership amongst our customers. Whether you are just beginning to read her books, or have been wondering what the buzz is all about, here are some tidbits and events for the coming months:

- ❖ As of this publishing, Debbie has written 209 books, per fantasticfiction.com
- ❖ NOVEMBER NEW RELEASE: In November, a new non fiction book from Debbie, "Knit Together...Discover Gods Pattern for your life".
- ❖ NOVEMBER RE-ISSUE: "Small Town Christmas" which holds two original stories, "Return To Promise" and "Mail Order Bride".
- ❖ DECEMBER RE-ISSUE: "The Manning Grooms" which holds two original stories, "Bride on the Loose" and "Same Time Next Year".
- ❖ Port Orchard, Debbie's home town, is hosting Cedar Cove Days, Aug 26-30, 2009. This is in honor of her eighth Cedar Cove book, "8 Sandpiper Way".

Shopping for the holidays

Just as I finish my personal wishlist (books!), I look to my friends and family. Many are book lovers and that is why giving the gift of reading is so special. You can personalize it by choosing a genre that fits them. My brother-in-law dives into Sci-Fi while my sister likes mystery and a good juicy romance. And you ask... do I give used books? Absolutely!

Here are four good reasons to give a USED book:

1. You add pleasure! Helene Hanff (84 CHARING CROSS) said she loves used books because she imagines what previous readers may have thought about the book, or how they reacted...cool idea!
2. You give a welcome and unique gift! Our used books are beautiful, clean, tight and gently used books. In our store you will find books no longer in print and back issues of favorite authors.
3. You save money! Our books are priced very reasonably, so you save or stretch your money.
4. You are helping the environment! You are recycling!

Add to your book gift: we have unique book covers, hands-free book holders and bookmarks, too.

I ran across this quote that I find to be so true. There are days when we make you smile and there are days when you brighten our days even more! As I was preparing for this newsletter I was thinking about all the customers we serve. We value your patronage and friendship. THANK YOU!
